

LELAND STANFORD MANSION

“WHERE THE WORLD MEETS CALIFORNIA”

The Leland Stanford Mansion, located in Sacramento, California, is currently the State’s most prestigious public venue used by the Governor and First Lady for entertaining visiting dignitaries.

The Mansion was home and office to three Governors: Leland Stanford, Frederick Low and Henry Haight. During the 1860s the Mansion served as an executive office space until the State Capitol Building was ready for use in 1869. It was the site of countless important meetings and gatherings involving the future of the State and the development of the Transcontinental Railroad.

Under the stewardship of the California State Parks, the Leland Stanford Mansion continues to function as a place where “California Greets the World”.
