

Open Library Day at Octagon House & Annual Meeting Dinner

Wednesday, 20 April 2016

About Open Library Day

The library collection at Octagon House includes many family history books, San Francisco Directories, Bancroft's History of California as well as a large collection of books on the decorative arts.

On Wednesday, April 20th from 12:00pm to 5:00pm, Dames are welcome to browse, scan or photograph library book pages for their records. You may find that "gem" you have been looking for in our collection of Colonial genealogies and arts.

We will have people on hand that day to help complete your Book of Ancestors or other profiles. We will have Ancestry.com available online as well.

To participate in Open Library Day at Octagon House, please complete the Reservation Form on the back of this page.

THE NATIONAL SOCIETY OF THE COLONIAL DAMES OF AMERICA
in the State of California

Cordially invites you and your guests to the

ANNUAL MEETING DINNER

Wednesday, the twentieth of April 2016
Six o'clock in the evening

Pane e Vino
1715 Union Street
San Francisco, CA 94123

Cocktails at 5:00 pm at Octagon House
Dinner to follow at restaurant, conveniently located next door

To RSVP, please complete the Reservation Form on the back of this page

★★★
NSCDA
— CALIFORNIA —