

The Monterey Peninsula Committee of The National Society of The Colonial Dames of America in California

Cordially invites you to gather with fellow Dames and candidates at our annual

President's Day Tea
Saturday, February 10, 2024

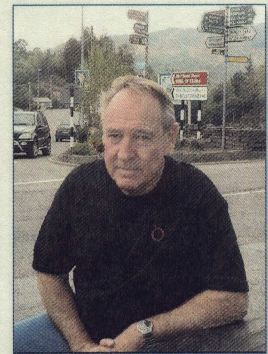

11:30 AM Lunch & Social; 12:30 PM Program

Holly Ochoa's Home
1099 Alta Mesa Road, Monterey CA 93940

Program We have a fantastic program lined up for this event – John Walton (husband of Colonial Dame, Pris Walton) will be presenting Monterey's Colonial History Stories. He is an author, sociologist, professor, and sometime historian who lives and works in Carmel Valley. His many publications include the award-winning Western Times and Water Wars: State, Culture, and Rebellion in California. To learn more, please visit his website at <http://johnwaltonphd.com>

Lunch Enjoy a potluck-style luncheon of sweet and savory finger foods; beverages will be provided.

- All members with Last Name beginning A-L, please bring a SWEET dish of finger foods.
- All members with Last Name beginning M-Z, please bring a SAVORY dish of finger foods.

Parking Street parking is at the curb directly across from Holly's driveway in front of the church and also heading uphill along Alta Mesa Road.

RSVP Please RSVP to Laura Neault by Monday, February 5, via email at knops@msn.com or by phone at (206) 854-9639. Maximum attendance is 35.

